Classical language status to Kannada and Tulu

588. SHRI JANARDHANA POOJARY: Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the criteria for conferring classical language status on a language;

(b) the number of Indian languages conferred the status so far and languages identified for the purpose;

(c) whether there is a demand for conferring tha classical language status on Kannada and Tulu; and

(d) if so, the details in this regard and Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) As per Notification issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs, the criteria for classification of a language as a classical language is as under:

(i) High antiquity of its early texts/recorded history over a period of 1500-2000 years.

(ii) A body of ancient literature/texts, which is considered a valuable heritage by generations of speakers.

(iii) The literary tradition by original and not borrowed from another speech community.

(iv) The classical language and literature being distinct from modern, there may also be a discontinuity between the classical language and its later forms or its offshoots.

(b) and (c) Only two languages viz. Tamil & Sanskrit have been declared as 'Classical language'. Many representations including one from Government of Karnataka have been received to declare Kannada as a classical language. No demand has been received in respect of Tulu.

(d) A Committee of Linguisitc Experts has been constituted in Sahitya Akademi. This matter has been referred to them.
